Jonathon Winegarden: About Me

I am a fourteen year old freshman attending Mt. Lebanon High School. I am in three honors classes, and on two teams for the high school; JV Football in the fall and JV Lacrosse in the spring. I've been taking piano for two years. Last year, I captained a team in the Relay for Life.

It was our first year to join Relay and we were all under 15 years old. Together we were able to raise over $4,000 to fight cancer. This year, we were the first team to sign up for the 2012 Relay. In the spring of 2011, I attended a conference at the Grand Wyndham in downtown Pittsburgh called the National Young Leader's State Conference. Students in 8th and 9th grade from all over Pennsylvania were invited, and I had the privilege to attend. I aim to raise money to pay the tuition to send myself on a Celtic Heritage journey. The tuition is $7,000. Thank you very much for any contribution you may make. My contact information is listed below if you have an interest in my services.

My Mission:

This year I was invited by an organization known as People To People founded by President Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1956 to attend a special event. This organization handpicks students across the United States to travel the world in over 100 cities, 40 countries, and 7 continents. Students can also be recommended by teachers or alumni. This year, I am invited to join them on a twenty-day trip the British Isles. The activities include the chance to meet Parliament members and watch a Parliament meeting in process in England. In Wales, we will be rappelling down a 500-foot castle wall. In Scotland, we will search for Nessie in Lochness, and in Ireland, we'll learn how to bog jump. And this is just a taste of the experience. In an effort to raise money to send myself on this magnificent trip and become a Student Ambassador, I will provide the listed services and will hold bake sales and hoagie sales throughout the next seven months. Thank you for your orders and contributions.

Bake Sale:

On the third Saturday of every month, we will be delivering baked goods to those who have ordered ahead. Orders are due on the preceding Tuesday. Any orders received after this day will not be filled until the following month.
